BREAD RIOTS IN SPAIN.

Marchers in the Streets Shouting for Work.

DEMAND WAR RATE INSURANCE.

Senator Proctor Arrives in Havana—Says he is Engaged in a Business Venture.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Salamanca, Spain, Feb. 26.—A crowd of three hundred workmen accompanied by groups of women carrying flags paraded the streets today shouting for work and bread.
Many houses including the railroad station were stoned and considerable wheat was stolen. The authorities promised to find work for the unemployed and at this writing they are restoring order.

WAR INSURANCE RATES.
London, Feb. 26.—The Lloyd's underwriters are demanding war rates for insurance of Spanish ships and cargoes bound from Spain to Cuba.

PROCTOR ARRIVES.

Havana, Feb. 26.—Senator Proctor of Vermont arrived this morning. He says his coming has no significance in connection with political matters. He is accompanied by Parker, a real estate dealer of Washington.

It is given out that they are engaged in a business venture. Proctor says he may return on the next steamer and he may remain some time.

A number of newspaper men went to Key West this morning in anticipation of a transfer of the court of inquiry.

The divers and apparatus of the Mascot were gladly received. The arrivals are not many and the departures are up to the average.

The wounded sailors of the Maine are doing well, except Holzer, who is very low.

WILL BUY A TRUCK.

Other Matters Considered By the Aldermen Last Night.

The board of aldermen met last night, the mayor in the chair. All the members present except Elam and Pickard.

The fireman's committee made a report stating that the old hook and ladder truck had been sold as ordered by the board sometime ago and is to be delivered to purchaser in sixty days. The committee recommended that the board purchase an aerial truck. The report was adopted, and the committee empowered to make the selection and purchase the truck.

E. P. Wharton asked for street to be opened through the Adams property.
Referred to street committee to report.
Adjourned to meet Monday night.

Polk Miller Coming.

Polk Miller, the famous humorist and negro dialectician and impersonator will appear at the Academy next Wednesday. Miss Ester Wallace, who assists Polk Miller and Oscar Sisson this season, is a little quakeress and Mr. Sisson's niece. She has a splendid mezzosoprano voice and is as dainty and pretty on the stage as a Dresden doll. When not on the stage she uses "thee" and "thou," as is usual with Quakers, and says it is often the case on the stage that it is with the greatest difficulty she keeps from using this form of speech. Miss Wallace wears a dress, in the sketch with Mr. Sisson, "Cousin Ella's Visit From the Country," that is made over from a dress worn by her great-grandmother and she presents a picture that is as pretty as the dress is quaint. Polk Miller, Oscar Sisson and Miss Wallace appear together in a character sketch in which Mr. Miller plays the part, true to life, of "Uncle Daniel," and sings songs, tell stories and picks de "banjer" in real old fashioned style.

Senator Pritchard Denies.

To the Editor of the Charlotte Observer:

I notice that your correspondent of yesterday from Winston, among other things says: "Senator Pritchard passed through Greensboro this week and it is learned that he admitted to a friend that there is no hope for Ewart." I desire to say that in so far as the said statement refers to Judge Ewart's confirmation it is absolutely without foundation. I am confident that the charges against Judge Ewart cannot be sustained and I am sure that he will be confirmed. J. C. Pritchard.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News from Our Neighbor
Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C., Feb. 26, '98.

Dr. W. W. Bays will preach in the Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow at 11 a. m. He will lecture in that church Monday night at 7:30 o'clock.
Don't miss it.

Mrs. A. J. Tomlinson, of Archdale, passed the city this morning en route to Guilford College.

Misses Deborah and Annie Tomlin-son, of Archdale, were in attendance at the minstrel show last night.

K. P. Battle of Salisbury has moved his headquarters. Kemp is well known here and the people are glad to have him back.

Mr. Wolfsohn, Evangelist Fife's singer, was in the city this morning shaking hands with his friends.

Rev. John Wakefield, of Spencer, is in the city stopping with the family of E. A. Snow. He will preach in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and night.

S. W. Codey, of the High Point Citizen, who has been doing professional work in Trinity for the past few days returned last night.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Nissen of Salem, who have been visiting the family of R. C. Charles for the past few days left this morning for their home.

Miss Henryanna Hackney left today for a visit to her mother at Guilford College.

A large crowd of girls and boys passed through today from Archdale, going to Guilford College to attend the entertainment there tonight.

Misses Nellie Makepeace and Bertie Ragan are visiting in Greensboro today.

John Drake is here in the interest of the Woodmen of the World.

The minstrel last night was good and was attended by the largest audience that was ever in the opera house.
They took in between $75 and $100.

Miss Etta Dorsett, of Bethany, is visiting her sister Mrs. P. H. Johnson.

Some Statistics.

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction has completed the figures in his report. These are as follows:
Total assessed value of white property $211,301,836, colored $7,350,064; white polls 167,477, colored 66,674; insolvent white polls 14,430, colored 11,752; amount paid white teachers $461,474, colored $227,321; paid for white school sites $30,363, colored $16,534; total disbursements for school purposes $831,-

A New Cotton Mill.

The Nantucket mills, the new cotton mills at Spray, Rockingham county, was yesterday incorporated by the secretary of state, with a capital stock of $25,000, divided into shares of $100 each.

The business proposed is the manufacture and sale of all articles made of cotton, wool or other textile products.

The incorporators are: J. S. Mc-Allister and Hal M. Worth, of Worth-ville, and C. C. McAllister, of Asheboro.

Business may be commenced as soon as $5,000 of the capital has been subscribed for.—News and Observer.

Death Followed Wedding.

Rockville Centre, L. I., Feb. 24.— Thomas Richard Leconte, 60 years old, a widower with two daughters, was married on Washington's birthday to Miss Mary Emma Corey, the young daughter of the housekeeper at Tanglewood Park, Mr. Leconte's country place. Mr. Leconte died of apoplexy on Wednesday and the notices of the wedding and sudden death were published in a local newspaper today.

Mr. Leconte was a member of the firm of Leconte Brothers, wholesale stationers, of New York and San Francisco. He was prominent in the masonic order. The funeral will be held at the house of his daughter, Mrs. James R. Denyse, 305 South Fifth street, Williamsburg, on Saturday.

Hoggish.

Governor Hogg, of Texas, named his two daughters Ima Hogg and Eura Hogg, respectively, and now christens his latest little piglet Moore Hogg. A correspondent of the New York Sun wittily suggests that the ex-governor finish his work by changing his own name to Adam.—Morning Post.

A SIGNIFICANT SERIOUSNESS

Keeps Secretary Long from Leaving Washington.

A MILLION FOR SPANISH NAVY

Detroit and Marblehead Arrive at Key West and are Received With Much Enthusiasm.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Feb. 26.—It is significant of the seriousness of the situation as viewed by the administration that Long has decided not to take leave for several days on account of his health as he intended yesterday. The discussion of indemnity by the cabinet is believed to indicate that the administration has abandoned the accident theory.

VOTES A MILLION PESETAS.

Madrid, Feb. 26.—The cabinet has voted a million pesetas for the navy while regretting the passion that has crept into the American situation.

THE CRUISERS ARRIVE.

Key West, Feb. 26.—The cruisers Detroit and Marblehead arrived this morning and were received with a demonstration from the hundreds of people near the docks. The Detroit began coaling. The cruiser Montgomery is expected some time today. No one is allowed to go on the dock near the cruisers. In a few days the large American fleet of war vessels of modern type ever gathered will be here.

FIRE IN A TENEMENT.

With The Usual Horrible Fati-ties.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Charleston, S. C., Feb. 26.—A fire in a tenement house on Church street at three o'clock caused great confusion destroying the building and causing the death of Mrs. Rebecca Knickmeyer, the wife of a carpenter named Albert O'Neal, Caswell O'Neal, Josephine Knickmeyer, Kate Knickmeyer, Lenora Knickmeyer, Frances Knick-meyer, Lillie Knickmeyer and an infant child only a month old. The whole building seemed to break out in flame at once.

Late Telegraphic Briefs.

A special Havana cable to the Evening World says: it is now absolutely certain that the Min's was blown up from without. The divers found the forward big magazines intact. The divers before the investigation board today swore that the plates of the ship were blown upward, not downward, as would have been the case if the explosion had been in the ship. Experts say that a big torpedo of the Maine and 500 lbs of saluting powder did the damage.

The Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon says "that in spite of all manner of reports we cannot see any immediate prospect of war between Spain and the United States. There is absolutely no evidence that anything but an accident has occurred. Even those who stick to the torpedo theory attribute it to flendish and irresponsible fanatics. In that case Spain would immediately right herself by making amends. There is one thing essential and that is for the administration to keep its head. That it seems to be doing."

The European press declares that the army is now in absolute control of France.

Justice Harlan says the assumption of Spanish duplicity is discreditable.

A lion broke loose in an express car today and remained master of it from Chicago to Pittsburg.

Shipping Guns to Brooklyn.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Feb. 26.—The administration has ordered the commandant of the navy yard to ship to Brooklyn all the guns to be used on the auxiliary cruisers. A hundred and forty-two guns were available for this purpose in October last. Since then a hundred more have been made.

To Move to Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Weill, who since their marriage have been living at her father's, Mr. H. Baumgarten's, leave today for Greensboro, where they will reside.—Charlotte Observer.

JEERS OF THE HAVANA RABBLE.

Bull Fighting Party Exults Over the Ruins of the Maine.

Passengers on the Ward line steamship Conch, which arrived yesterday from Havana, say that while the ship was lying in Havana harbor, near the wreck of the American battleship Maine, on Sunday several Spaniards in boats on their way to a bull fight passed near the Maine and jeered at the American ensign floating at half mast from the ruin. Some of the men in the boats threw things at the flag.
While two of the Conch's passengers were out in a row boat near the wreck, they heard men passing in an excusion boat say in Spanish, "We gave them what they deserved" and "We will repeat that if necessary."—New York Sun.

BRYAN'S VIEWS.

Be Slow to Act and do Nothing Until After the Investigation.

Topeka, Kan., Feb. 25.—Wm. J.
Bryan was interviewed today concerning the Maine. "In my opinion, we should be slow to act in the Maine affair, especially under the trying circumstances which confront us," he said. "Another fact which in my mind impels us to exercise discretion is that the official investigation of the explosion is now being made. The United States cannot afford to be too hasty in this matter. International questions are involved, and it would be a sad compliment to our government were we to openly and maliciously bring about strained relations by our anxiety to locate the responsibility for the Maine disaster. Nothing should be done until the investigation is completed."

STOLE GOLD FROM THE MINT.

Three Men Arrested in San Francisco for Their Operations in Bullion.

San Francisco, Feb. 24.—For stealing gold bullion in the minting department of the United States mint William Clarkson, foreman of the department, was arrested today and his accomplices in selling the gold, Martin Eggers, a grocer, and M. D. Caler, blacksmith, were also arrested. Thefts of bullion have been observed for two years, but the detectives thought it was the work of "sweaters." Finally they found that Clarkson had been stealing flakes from bullion when it is rolled. This amounted to from $75 to $100 a month.

Clarkson took the gold to Eggers, and representing it as a perquisite of his position, got him to have it put into shape for selling. Eggers hired Caler to melt the gold in his forge.
The detectives discovered the men by sale of small lots of fine gold. Clarkson denied everything, but was held in $5,000 bail. Eggers has made a clean breast of the story.

NO MINES IN HAVANA HARBOR.

A Very Emphatic Denial by Senor Du Bose, of Sensational Reports.

Washington, Feb. 25.—In view of the widely published report that the harbor of Havana contains a system of submarine mines, a statement around which was centered the chief public interest in connection with the disaster to the battleship Maine, Senor Du Bose, Spanish charge d'affaires, at Washington, tonight made to the Associated Press the following statement, which, coming from such authority, may be considered as an official denial:

"I wish to state on my own official knowledge that no mine exists inside or outside of Havana harbor, nor is there any submarine defense of any kind. The report is so absolutely false and ridiculous that it could only have originated in the minds of those persons anxious to incite the evil passions of both nations for their own miserable ends. I consider the very suggestion of such a thing an insult to Spain."

Sam Jones is Out of It.

Atlanta, Feb. 24.—The Rev. Sam.
Jones has withdrawn from the gubernatorial contest, but declares that he reserves the right to re-enter it at any time he sees fit. He gives as his reason the lack of character in the state democratic forces. He says in former campaigns they have sold themselves to the whiskey element and he has no assurance that this campaign will be an exception. He also says that he does not care to endorse the "vagaries of the Chicago platform," a step which would be rendered necessary should his candidacy be continued.

Bache at Key West.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Key West, Feb. 26.—The United States survey steamship Bache arrived today from Havana with four of the wounded Maine sailors.

THE AUTHOR OF THE PLOT

Said to be a Prominent Officer of the Spanish Army.

OTHER OFFICERS IMPLICATED.

The Wire Reached by Means of the Secret Tunnel of Which Only a Few People Knew.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Havana, Feb. 26.—The Author of the plot to blow up the Maine, it is reported here, was a prominent officer not in the regular Spanish army, and who is noted for his loud expressions of hatred of Americans.

It is also reported that two other Havana officials were in the plot, and that the actual work was done by citizens of Matanzas. It is claimed that secret meetings were held at the house of the officer in Matanzas and that a man was instructed where and how to find the wire connecting with the mine under the Maine.

It is added also that he did this by means of a secret tunnel known only to a few persons in Havana. This Spanish officer is well known and was one of the leading spirits in the recent disturbance here. Rumor makes no secret whatever of his name.

La Champagne Lost?

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Feb. 26.—The Paris arrived today bringing no news of La Champagne. She is now seven days overdue. There was a hurricane two days after she was sighted by the Bremhaven. There is much alarm for her safety.

More Accurate
Service in Greensboro
Than Baltimore

Mr. C. M. Vanstory had his little girl's eyes examined in Baltimore last year and went with the prescription to one of the largest and best known optical houses there to have the glasses made up. FORTUNATELY one of the lenses got broken recently and was carried to the Greensboro Eye Specialist to be replaced. He saw at a glance that neither lens accorded with the prescription, and so changed them both. Mr. Vanstory sent the old lenses with an explanation to the oculist who had given the prescription and in reply received the following:

A QUESTI PROPORTION.

As we see it, co-operation would put Mr. Butler as much under the democratic flag as it would democrats under his flag, i. e., he would work as hard to elect our men as we would elect him, and all would be Bryan men and in addition to this the democrats would have a majority of the offices. It would be interesting to know when Mr. Butler became more brainy and subtle than Watson, Mason, Manly et id omne genus. The democrat who is too good to march where Mr. Bryan and the chairman of the national democratic executive committee and the congressional committee do is too good to stay in the democratic party and ought to seek more select company. Really he is too good for this world and should pray to be translated—Webster's Weekly.

The preceding was called out by the assertion of the Charlotte Observer that under co-operation Mr. Marion Butler would be the real leader and would dictate the policy of the conglomeration.

It is rather amusing to see how indignantly Col. Webster says: "and in addition to this the democrats would have the majority of the offices." One cannot forbear to ask whether this be the point of view of all those most extreme for fusion. Is the proportion of offices falling to democrats to be the final test as to whether fusion is desirable?

Whenever the democratic party descends to dicker with Mr. Butler and his followers for the poor political feeding to be found in the old state it disposes of any chance it may now have to regain permanent control of the state.

Col. Webster says "it would be interesting to know when Mr. Butler became more brainy and subtle" than some of the present democratic leaders whom he mentions. It is hardly interesting any more; it has become an old story to those who have followed carefully the career of Mr. Butler. At least the subtle part of it has.

How can a self respecting democrat make a fight on the present regime with a populist for an ally when he can not deny that his ally jointly with his enemy is responsible for the conditions he denounces?

A white man's government—yes. But let us get at it by white methods.

If this country must fight it should make a reverse impossible. The administration should buy ready built warships before the conflict begins—as many as can be manned.

It is safe to say that the Journal carrier pigeon was fitted with a phonograph, a camera and instruments of measurement before it was sent aboard the Vizcaya.

American pride should at least see to it that the wreck of the Maine is taken up, if it requires a dozen millions.

In view of present conditions Captain Eulale's parting words are open to the suspicion of irony.

The court of inquiry is at least not inclined to satisfy the idle curiosity of the American people.

His Excellency seems anxious to have other leases to conquer.

SATURDAY'S LITERARY CHAT.

[All books and magazines mentioned below may be had at Wharton's book store.]

The editors of the Guilford College speak seriously this month of discontinuing the literary department of that magazine on the ground that the student body refuse to write for it and the editors are compelled either to get up the matter themselves or depend on alumni for it. This is most deplorable. It betrays a lack of literary taste in the student body of that otherwise excellent college. There must be something wrong with that student body which cannot and will not supply twenty-five or thirty pages of readable material for its literary representative. Have the students of old Guilford lost all pride in their institution? The most marked thing about student work at Trinity, Wake Forest and the University (we get no magazines from other male colleges) is the improvement in the quantity and quality of matter contributed to their college periodicals. The students of Guilford should bestir themselves. Such a step backward as that contemplated would be a calamity to the college.

The number of new letters to see the light in Mr. Murray's edition of Byron is said to be remarkable.

In his story of the recent Graeco-Turkish war, "The Broom of the War God" Henry Noel Brailsford gives glimpses of Lamia, Pharsala, Larissa, Vola, Velestino and Domoko. The author was one of the disorganized and leaderless assemblage which constituted the Greek army, and his graphic sketches of the conditions in the ranks, the incompetence of officers and the attitude of the King and Crown Prince toward the war, shed, it is said a light upon the disasters of the campaign. The hero, an Englishman, depicts the characters and the feelings of his strangely assorted cosmopolitan comrades, and illustrates the psychology of war as displayed in a hopeless campaign.

The impending issue by the Lippincotts of the new Variorum Shakespeares, "The Winter's Tale," is a literary event of the first importance. Dr. Horace Howard Furness has now prepared 11 volumes of this monumental edition.

William Le Queux's forthcoming novel is to deal with "Scribes and Pharisees."

The unpublished verses by Rudyard Kipling on the immortality of the soul will shortly appear in print.

Mrs. Julia C. R. Dorr's new romance of days of Queen Anne is entitled "In King's House, or the Adventures of Robin Sandys."

The last unpublished poem of H. C. Bunner appears in March Scribner's. It is entitled "Lutetia," and refers to the last illness of Helene.

A collection of the more distinctive national lyrics of Laureate Alfred Austin are to be issued under the title of "Songs of England."

Zola's Paris will be published on March 1.

A new poet has appeared in London in Newman Howard, whose "Footsteps of Prosperpine" is praised as an admirable and scholarly book of lyrics.

Maria Louise Pool's story of "The Red Bridge Neighborhood" has, as might be guessed, a New England setting. It is a tale of domestic drudgery and divorce, the problem being as to how much a woman's love can tolerate before it is entirely deadened.

W. E. Norris' novel, "The Fight for the Crown," is a tale of politics and the Irish question, particularly timely in '98. The earlier chapters give a picture of Dublin and of Irish country life, showing the distressful condition of the people and the chapters relating to London political society.

Yellow Pine, 50 cents, is the cheapest because it cures. All druggists.

There is Nothing So Good.

There is nothing just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds, so demand it and do not permit the dealer to sell you some substitute. He will not claim there is anything better, but in order to make more profit he may claim something else to be just as good. You want Dr. King's New Discovery because you know it to be safe and reliable, and guaranteed to do good or money refunded. For coughs, colds, consumption and for all affections of throat, chest and lungs, there is nothing so good as Dr. King's New Discovery. Trial bottle free at C. E. Holton's drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00.

cety are very admirably done. One of the most interesting portraits in the book is that of a woman of wealth and position with a fondness for dabbbling in politics, a type familiar in London.

The first of Andrew Lang's new series of "Letters to Dead Authors" is addressed to Nathaniel Hawthorne and appears in the current issue of the Chap-Book.

In Walter Futh's story of "The Sack at Monte Carlo," a handful of adventurers "hold up" the famous gaming table and escape with a fortune. The episode of the raid on the croupiers is excellently imagined. The explosion of the "Devil Among Tailors," the panic of the polyglot players and the Babel excitement make several amusing pages.

The "Life of Pasteur," written by Professor and Mrs. Percy Frankland, will shortly be published.

Court House Broke Down.

"While holding court in Harnett county yesterday, said Judge Timberlake, 'I experienced the novel sensation of having the floor of the court room give way and drop some four or five feet. The room was crowded with people to hear a murder trial. Fortunately nobody was hurt. Harnett county has had two court houses burned and this building was only rented temporarily for court purposes. A new court house is soon to be built.'"

Nomination Confirmed.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The Senate today confirmed the nomination of J. T. Williams, of North Carolina, to be Consul at Sierra Leona, Africa.

Kodak cures any headache or neuralgia. 3 doses 10 cents. All druggists.

BROOKS FOR SOLICITOR.

Democrat of the Fifth District Brings Forward a Popular Plan.

Yanceyville, Feb. 23.—On selecting a candidate for the Democratic nomination for solicitor of the fifth judicial district, great care should be exercised. We ought to name an able lawyer, and at the same time one who is in accord with the Chicago platform and who possesses a character far from the vices which beset so many of the officers of our State at present. As such a candidate, I suggest the name of the Hon. A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro. Mr. Brooks is an able lawyer, a strong advocate and of unblemished character. His campaign of the district last election as elector won him scores of friends in the county, as well as over the district, and should he enter the race his many friends in Caswell county would take pleasure in joining hands with Guilford to promote his nomination and secure his election. He is a strong man. Nominate him!—Democrat in Charlotte Observer.

News From Alaska.

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 25.—The steamer Noya, which arrived here from Alaska today, brings a report that the British flag has been planted at Summit Lake, 14 miles inside of the American boundary line and 12 miles from Skaguay. It is also reported that eight men have been frozen to death on the trail since February 13th.

CLOTHING, HATS AND FURNISHINGS.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Read the new announcement of W. J. Ridge in The Telegram today.

Bowles & Grissom have a new ad today, for those who buy groceries.

J. B. Sneed returned to the city last night from a week's stay in Concord.

The special sales at Guilford Department Store will continue next week.

McClamroch Bros., the mantel, grate and tile dealers, present a new ad today.

Claude C. Barbee, our High Point representative, was here today, going up to Guilford College.

The noon train on the C. F. & Y. V. came in today with the cars newly painted just from the shops.

Rev. Dr. E. W. Smith will soon begin the erection of a handsome residence on the corner of Church and Smith streets.

Two new residences will be built on North Elm street between the residences of Capt. J. W. Fry and Mrs. Nancy Brown.

Rev. S. O. Hall, of Westminster Presbyterian and Rev. T. M. Johnson, Grace, Methodist Protestant, will exchange pulpits tomorrow night.

A mule hitched to a wagon caused some excitement by running away this morning. It ran down Davie street from the depot up to Sycamore in rear of the Katz building.

Rev. Dr. T. N. Ivey will preach at Centenary church tomorrow night, a special sermon in the interest of the Woman's Missionary society. The public cordially invited.

A gentleman well known in Greensboro in conversation with a Telegram man today said he would give ten per cent. on the cost of an opera house for this city. The gentleman says he means business. Here is a chance to talk business.

For the next three Sunday nights, Rev. Dr. E. W. Smith, the pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will preach on the three following subjects in the order named: Marriage, Home-making, Religion in the Home. Subject tomorrow night, Marriage.

The Philagorean Literary Society, of Guilford College, will present a play—Chronothanastrotion—tonight. The Telegram would like to say what may be expected, but we don't know. We simply give the name of the play. It will be worth while to go up just to find out what it means.

Messrs. J. M. Whitehead, D. M. Weatherly and W. C. York, of Ramseur, were in the city today and made a pleasant call on The Telegram. Mr. York said that Deep River was running on full time, that "everything was lovely and the goose was out o' sight."

Last Night at the Academy.

Only a medium sized audience took "A Night Off" at the Academy of Music last night, but those present were entertained. "A Night Off" has an exceedingly bright, rich vein of comedy running through it and the players played it well last night. Mr. Donald Bowles fully sustained the reputation made by him when he was here with "The Burglar."

The company went to Charlotte this morning and fun lovers of that city will tonight be given an opportunity to take "A Night Off."

THE COLONIAL TEA.

An Enjoyable Occasion at the Cooper House Last Night.

The Colonial Tea last night in memory of Washington, given by the young people of Washington street Baptist church at the Cooper House, on Washington street, was an enjoyable occasion.

Quite a crowd of people—many young and many not so young—assembled to meet George and Martha Washington, Mrs. Knox and other distinguished persons of the colonial period.

Miss Georgie Cooper represented the lady of the White House, while Dr. J. T. Johnson filled the place of General Washington, and Miss Marie Reshea posing as Mrs. Knox.

The house had been tastefully decorated with national flags, pictures of Washington, and hatchets of various sizes and colors were to be seen hanging here and there.

The early part of the evening was enlivened by parlor games, and instrumental music by the Misses Brooks and Miss Juanita Cooper and by Masters Charlie and Haywood Alderman.

Miss Susie Stone gave two recitations in her inimitable style.

When refreshments were served each guest was presented with a souvenir of the occasion in the shape of a tiny hatchet, tied with blue and red ribbon.

While attired in costumes of "ye olden time," Miss Georgie Cooper and Miss Marie Reshea never appeared more charming.
